6th Grade Rubric for Book Report

Title and Author: The Wind and the Willows by Kenneth Grahame

Genre: Realistic Fiction, Adventure

Characters: Who is the main character? Give his complete name, and then find TWO sentences from the book that describe him. You can use dialogue (something he says), physical description (how he looks), or his deeds (what he does). Put the information in quotation marks ("like this") and be sure to include the page number where you found your information (page #).

Example: The prince “rudely interrupted everyone” (32); “the prince laughed when the whipping boy was beaten” (20); he had brown hair and “sharp green eyes” (49).

Setting: Find two or three phrases in this book that describe setting. You can describe the weather, a landscape, the location, a season, etc. Use quotations and page numbers.

Summary: What is the conflict or problem that the main character has to overcome? What are the THREE most important events in the story? Don't re-tell the whole story! You should be able to summarize the book in about 8-10 well-constructed sentences.

Connection: Have you ever owned a dog or a pet of any kind? (If not, you'll have to imagine.) Describe what it's like to own a pet (fun times, problems, responsibilities, etc.). Be specific and write in clear, complete sentences!

b) Physical: Has your hair style changed? Are you taller? Has your shoe size grown? Can you run faster or play a sport better than last year?

e) Emotional/Social: How do you behave differently this year compared to last? Do you have more self-control? What do you do when things get difficult? When you are sad? Angry? Frustrated? How do you treat your family members (parents, siblings, relatives)? Are you more responsible than last year?

Pick-A-Project from Reading Choices Lists (6th-8th grades)

Choose only ONE of the following options to complete for your second book:

1. Create a comic book based on one part of your novel. Create and illustrate at least three "scenes." Use dialogue bubbles and be sure to write captions that summarize what the characters are doing (the action). Charcoal or colored pencils are fine; use standard size (8½ x 11) white paper.
2. Complete a painting, drawing or sculpture (any medium) that illustrates a scene from your novel. Explain why you chose the scene and what the characters/setting is all about (about half a hand-written page). Use creative license when determining the size and complexity of your art piece.
3. Create a scrapbook that represents the main character in your book. When you attach each picture or token, be sure to include a brief description of what it is and how it relates to your character. Minimum six pages (at least 8x5 sized paper).
4. Keep a reading diary or journal. You must have a minimum of ten hand-written entries, dated, paragraph form, approximately fifteen sentences each. Your entries need to express what's happened in the chapters you've read for that entry; you must make at least one prediction about what is going to happen, and one comment about a character's personality as revealed through their dialogue or deeds.
5. Create a song about your novel. Include lyrics (submit a typed copy) and record your music on a CD. You can use any instrument and/or appropriate tune. Your lyrics must be related to either the main character or the theme of the novel.
6. Act out a dance or YouTube[®]-style skit dramatizing one scene in your novel. The characters must be easily identifiable; dialogue or mime must reveal appropriate action taking place in the selected scene; no inappropriate behavior allowed. Save file in playable format, online storage.
7. Create a Power Point or Prezi about the main parts of your book (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, denouement/resolution). There must be a minimum of ten slides, each containing information and a picture. One slide must contain a sound bite. One slide must contain the name of your book, your name and picture. The project must be saved to a flash drive and given to the teacher upon completion.
